Red River Promotes Two to Vice President

Lebanon, NH – February 9, 2009 – Red River Computer Company, Inc. an integrator of information technology solutions for the federal government, state, local, university and medical organizations announced that Dan McGee was promoted to Vice President Operations and James Connal was promoted to Vice President Contracts.

Mr. McGee is responsible for Red River's internal IT group, Program Management Office, Accounting Department, HR, Sales Support, all Red River business systems, and the State, Local, University and Medical Sales Team. Mr. Connal is responsible for Red River's Contracts Division, Bids and Proposals Group, Compliance and all agreements between Red River and our partners, clients, etc. Dan and James will report directly to Rick Bolduc, Chief Executive Officer.

A 12-year veteran of Red River, Mr. McGee was Director of Operations before being promoted to Vice President. During his tenure at Red River, he has held a number of positions of ascending responsibility with the company starting as an Account Representative.

"During his career with Red River Dan has been an outstanding performer and leader," said Mr. Bolduc. "He has delivered exceptional results in both a sales capacity and within the infrastructure of Red River. I know he will continue to ensure Red River has a world class infrastructure. Through his role as Vice President Operations he will help Red River leverage its technology investments to meet or exceed customer expectations and provide our professional staff timely data."

Mr. Connal joined Red River in 2005 as the Director of Contracts. In the 4 years he has been with Red River James built a Contracts Division that has won numerous Agency-specific BPAs and led the effort of Red River's successful bid on SEWP IV. James also had the responsibility of ensuring Red River met the highest level of compliance in all transactions.

"As Red River has grown in capabilities and complexities," said Mr. Bolduc. "James has been instrumental in building a solid Compliance program. His excellent understanding of the government marketplace will help Red River capture new contracting opportunities and achieve our strategic growth plans."

Both Mr. McGee and Mr. Connal have been recognized with the Red River CEO's Outstanding Leadership Award. This award is given to the employee that demonstrates the "Highest Level of Leadership" through loyalty to the company, mentoring and hard work.
