Edmund Mangini Joins Red River's Executive Management Team

Claremont, NH (October 1, 2009) – Red River, an integrator of information technology solutions with expertise in the federal market, today announced the appointment of Edmund I. Mangini III as Vice President and Chief Financial Officer.

Most recently, Mr. Mangini served as CFO of Northern Elastomeric, Inc., a leading advanced composite technology manufacturing services company. He is a Certified Public Accountant and holds an MBA from the Graduate School of Business at New Hampshire College.

Ed brings over twenty years of leadership experience in private industry, banking, human resources and public accounting. He will be responsible for overseeing Red River's best-in-business finance team as well as all fiscal, risk management and human resource activities.

"As Red River continues to evolve and improve our position in the marketplace, we need to bring on individuals that can assist in maximizing our financial performance and contributing to our proven history of developing successful strategic growth initiatives." said Rick Bolduc, CEO. "Ed brings the expertise and track record of an accomplished CFO, and I look forward to his contribution as a valuable part of Red River's executive management team."
